

tions, shall not bind the said commissioners, but they shall have full power to increase or diminish the said amount at their sound discretion.

SWINE IN LOWER MARLBOROUGH.

P. L. L., (1860,) art 5, sec. 73.

127. No swine belonging to the inhabitants of Lower Marlborough, in Calvert county, shall be suffered to go at large in said town; and if any person shall find any such swine going at large in said town, he may kill the same.

Ibid sec. 74.

128. If any person shall be sued for killing any such swine going at large, he may plead the general issue and give the special matter in evidence.

TAXES.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 5, sec. 75.

129. Where there is no personal property on the land lying in Calvert county belonging to any person not residing therein, for the payment of taxes, the collector or deputy collector may sell a sufficient quantity of timber suitable for cord wood or fence rails, in one parcel, growing on the same acre or contiguous acres of the land, to pay such taxes.

Ibid. sec. 76.

130. The collector or deputy collector, before making such sale, shall give notice in some newspaper published in the District of Columbia, and in the city of Baltimore, and by advertisement set up at three of the most public places in the neighborhood adjoining the lands on which the taxes are due, of the time and place of sale; and at the time of making the sale, shall give a certificate to the purchaser, under his hand and seal, verified by affidavit, stating the quantity of timber sold, and shall also return a similar certificate to the county commissioners, at their next meeting, to be recorded among their proceedings.

Ibid. sec. 77.

131. The purchaser of any timber so sold may, at any time within twelve months from the day of sale, enter upon the lands